ZAPATA FIGHTS FOR MEXICO CITY AGAIN

Gen. Obregon Reported to Have Evacuated Capital as of No Value.

MADEROS QUIT ANGELES

Et. Pago, Feb. 18 -Villa officials were unable to-day to confirm the reported LUNCHEON GUESTS say Emiliano Zapata and his army. Carranza officials denied that Gen. Obregon had evacuated the capital, but both sides admit fighting in the suburbs

The Zapatistas were defeated by Gens Morales and Molina at Chilapa, ir the State of Guerrero, Carranzistas here say. Cuatro Ciengas has been recaptured by Gen. Luis Gutierrez, Carranzista leader, thus taking Villa's last coal field.

Vera Cruz reports to-day stated that Rafael Zubaran Capmany, representing Carranza, had signed an agreement with representatives of 50,000 workingmen, whereby the laborers were guaranteed protection and better working onditions. In turn the laborers agreed to organize municipal guards for garrisoning a number of cities in Carranza territory and also to organize a brigade

A coordinator employed by the Board of Education studies the pupils in both school and shop in order better to supplement the practical work by work in school. The students work the same hours and under identical conditions with other employees. A rrangements are being made to extend the scope of the plan week by week, enlisting other business and manufacturing concerns in the work and providing more places for students.

The plan is one put into effect successfully by the University of Cincinnati school of engineering and is being introduced here under the supervision of Dean Herman Schneider of that school.
